

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE

April 29 - May 1, 2010

2010 GOP REDISTRICTING CONFERENCE

“Mapping the GOP’s Future”

HELD IN COOPERATION WITH:

REPUBLICAN STATE LEADERSHIP COMMITTEE*

REPUBLICAN GOVERNORS ASSOCIATION*

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE*

GOPAC*

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL LAWYERS ASSOCIATION*

Washington, DC

April 29 through May 1, 2010

Join GOP legislators, Members of Congress, statewide officeholders and their staffs, as well as attorneys, redistricting experts and other participants in the process, including potential redistricting commission appointees to learn how the 2010 reapportionment and redistricting process will shape politics in your state.

This conference will focus on all key elements of the upcoming 2010-11 redistricting process:

- Electing Republicans to key legislative and statewide offices;
- Technical and data preparations, including setting up an effective redistricting office; Development of a winning legal strategy;
- Training key stakeholders and staff for successful participation; and
- Understanding the role of the Census Bureau in redistricting and reapportionment.

Our team of legal experts will provide a proper understanding of U. S. Supreme Court legal precedents, as well as Justice Department regulations and policies governing enforcement of the Voting Rights Act. Training materials will be primarily targeted to non-attorneys, but attorneys will also benefit from this conference. Redistricting software vendors will be attending to demonstrate their systems.

*Staff and members of this organization have been invited to participate in the conference. No financial resources are being provided by this organization.
